1

StatoilHydro vs The suppliers

The StatoilHydro organisation

StatoilHydro

Projects - Organization

Strong position on the Norwegian continental shelf

- We have solved some of the industry's most challenging development tasks
- Leading player on the Norwegian continental shelf (NCS) and its foremost industrial architect
- Aggressive exploration strategy and big ambitions for improved recovery
- Big investments in the years ahead

A company with ambitions for global growth

- Retain the strong and unique position on the Norwegian continental shelf
- Strengthen international competitiveness
- Exploit the company's world-leading technology and ability to execute projects
- Deliver results in accordance with a values-based performance culture

Our values

Health, safety and environment Our goal is zero harm We understand and manage risk We can prevent all accidents We stop unsafe acts and operations · We minimize our impact on the environment and climate We care about each other We create a safe and healthy working We work together with our partners to StatoilHydro We have an open dialogue with society www.stetaithydes.com Ethics code of conduct StatollHydro

We shall be known for our high ethical standards • We treat ethics as an integral part of our business • We act within the law and comfortably within our own ethical policy • We require high ethical standards of everyone who acts on our behalf dilemmas • We are open in dealing with ethical ethical decisions • We spend sufficient time on difficult of have high ethical standards • We expect our suppliers and partners to have high ethical standards

StatoilHydro

Procurement aspirations

- On top of the market ahead of demand
- Global sourcing local deployment
- Maximise value supply chain management

The road ahead

- StatoilHydro has been launched. With fresh goals, the two strong former competitors from the NCS are now sailing under the same flag
- The new company's values base is clear and expertise and ambitions are strong – for the NCS and internationally
- The new energy group is going to write a new chapter in the Norwegian oil adventure - and now in an international format
- A new platform for further growth has been created